Miners' Meeting at Johnson's. Whereas the water has well nigh failed in this vicinity, and believing it unnecessary for persons to remain on their claims for the purpose of holding them during the dry season, and it being necessary to make some rules by which to be governed, therefore be it resolved by the Miners in convention assembled at Johnsons, May 30th, 1852, as follows:

Sec. 1. This district shall be known as Grape Vine and North Forks of Dry Creek, and two miles down the same, making Johnson's trading house the centre, and including all the land in said district.

only, except that it be the claim of a deceased pe sou or one sold by an officer of the law.

Sec. 3. Each claim shall be in extent one hundred and Flats, and one hundred feet square to the discoverer of new diggings.

Sec. 4. In order to secure a claim during the dry season, it must have been worked previous to the passage of these laws, or ditched to convey the water upon or around said claim, so as to show a taking up in good faith, and a notice stating the num-ber of claims and the name of the person or company ber of claims and the name of the person or company composing the same, must be renewed every ten days after the first day of November next, unless there is water for toming or sluicing sooner, in which case the claim must be taken possession of in ten days thereafter, personally or by agent, or said claim shall be forfeited. Said notice, signed by the person or company, and stating the number must be recorded along with these laws in a book. These laws shall not be so construed as to apply to claims taken up after this date.

SEC. 5. The eldest claimant shall be entitled to enough water to work his claimeither in the rayines

SEC. 10. Whenever it may be necessary to re-peal, alter or amend these laws, a notice stating the reason for the same must be served on all the miners in the district, signed by at least three miners resid-ing in the same.

in the district, signed by at lease the same.

Sec. 11 A claim may be taken up by ditching the same; said ditch to be not less than eighteen inches in width and one foot deep, or to the bed or slate rock; but ditching a claim where there is or slate rock; but ditching a claim where there is no expectation of having to work the same, shall not old good. A notice must be placed up as set forth in the 4th section.

Sec. 12. All former laws are repealed. Resolved, That these proceedings be sent to the Sacramento Union far publication.
