The project of a national State Exhibition, and the manner in which it was carried out, was a subject of considerable interest to the people of the United States, who have seen more of the kind before. As a matter of fact, the project was the subject of a debate in the United States Senate, which was to have been held at San Francisco, California. The project was finally abandoned.

The project was the subject of a debate in the United States Senate, which was to have been held at San Francisco, California. The project was finally abandoned.

The project was the subject of a debate in the United States Senate, which was to have been held at San Francisco, California. The project was finally abandoned.

The project was the subject of a debate in the United States Senate, which was to have been held at San Francisco, California. The project was finally abandoned.

The project was the subject of a debate in the United States Senate, which was to have been held at San Francisco, California. The project was finally abandoned.