ARBITRARY ARRESTS IN MARYSVILLE .- On last Friday evening two tipsy men engaged in a wordy political quarrel, on the corner of C and Second streets. One of them made quite a long harangue, and a considerable crowd gathered on the spot. The scene became rather disorder ly, and seemed to threaten a breach of the peace, when officer Leaman came along, advised the most noisy of the disputants to be quiet, and flnally arrested him. One James McCann interfered with the arrest by following Leaman, and ealling after him in a provoking manner, when Leaman also arrested him. McCann, it appears, is a Democrat, and regarded this as an 'arbitrary" proceeding. The Indian agent arrived at Chico on Sunday and on Monday morning made Capt. Hunt his agent, with full power to gather in all the Indians in the county at the general rendezvous near Chi-co. Lieut. Schrader was informed before leaving Oroville that some two hundred had been collected in the vicinity of Chico, one hundred and fifty from Concow Valley, near Yankee Hill, and seventy-five from the vicinity of Oroville. He knew positively of but six Indians having been killed, though more were reported. The Indians committing the murders were supposed to belong to the Mill Creek tribe. Just before our informant left a report came into town that a large band of Indians were encamped within seven miles of Oroville, and par-ties were preparing to go out and investigate the EUREKA SOAP! It is at all times made of the best material, is white and hard and adapted to the ordinary uses of the family and also to the toilet, and costs no more than the old-fashioned Scape. It will do its work easier, better, and far more economically than any other ever sold in California. We challenge comparison with any other in use, feeling confident that when once fairly tried no other will suit as well.

We would especially recommend it as the most serviceable Sonp they can use; and for Hotels, Bath Houses and Barbers' Saloons it is superior to any other. Each bar is stamped
