Outstanding Claims

A good deal of feeling is manifested regarding the recent claim for the recognition and payment of the debts "contested by the President and City Council," in the last number of the Argus, and is adopted by the people of said city on the 13th day of the month of May.

Section 234 of the new act of incorporation which we have unanimously accepted and legisated for the better regulation of all such matters as are provided for, and the resolution passed by the citizens council created by that charter, and of said council shall be, that the bond which the municipality shall allow and audit it, and make provision for its speedy payment. It is moreover provided, that on exercising the power which the municipality shall have to bring suit therefor against the holders of any and all such bonds, and if adjudged to be just and equable, in said court, the corporation shall pay the same, with the right to other party to appeal as in ordinary cases.

No course should be adopted at this juncture, that would throw the burden of the pay-

From the Mines

There is no depth in the subject yet let one respect, that we are looking at this subject from a very different point of view. The simple fact, without overtermament, is what we wish to get at, and we will do so, I trust, as perfectly as we can.

"Fours of the North," May 2, 1850.

Can you guess where the Fours of the North are not; for there are so many of them, that a stranner might be puzzled to determine their number and variety. But as the Fours, fair excellence and so, as you see, are divided into several distinct kinds or species, with main branches, known in the abundant scarcity of proper names for the rivers of this great coun-

You may possibly hear great stories of the exorbation of gold that are out in this vicinity, but the truth will distinctly be stated, as it is in this instance. A few individuals, it is true, have taken from 8000 to 10000 a day, in a spot, but they are not general.

It is only at random intervals that gold is found at all in the banks, up here. Now, etc.
