The Transcript. HAMILTON CITY.

November 3, 1851.

JAMES CARTER & Co., Contractors.

This is an account of the City of Hamilton, as it is from the City Council, for the years ending on the 2nd day of November, 1851.

The Public Works of the City.

The City of Hamilton has increased in population, and is rapidly growing in prosperity. The improvements in the city are of great importance to its prosperity, and the public works of the city are being carried on with great energy and diligence. The city is now in a flourishing condition, and the improvements are rapidly advancing.

The City Council.

The City Council is composed of seven members, elected by the voters of the city. The council is elected for a term of three years, and meets once a month. The council has the power to make laws for the government of the city, and to regulate the affairs of the city. The council also has the power to appoint officers and employees for the city, and to fix the salaries of such officers and employees.

The City Treasurers.

The City Treasurers are elected by the voters of the city for a term of three years, and are responsible for the safekeeping of the city's funds.

The City Clerk.

The City Clerk is elected by the City Council for a term of three years. The Clerk is responsible for the keeping of the city's records, and for the preparation of the city's reports. The Clerk also has the power to issue certificates and warrants for the city's money.