

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 5, 1893.

We are constrained, from the great pressure upon our advertising columns, to ask the indulgence of our readers. To a much larger variety of news.

Weekly Union.—The Weekly Union is now ready for delivery at the counter. It contains its usual full variety of foreign, miscellaneous and local news.

Fruit Trees at Auction.—J. B. Starr will sell today, a large and valuable assortment of choice fruit trees, just received from New York, in prime order.

SACRAMENTO CITY CHARTER.—Judge Halston introduced in the Senate, on Thursday last, a substitute to the bill offered by Mr. Johnson in the House on the previous day, and which appeared in our columns yesterday. This substitute does not interfere in the slightest degree with the previous bill, and varies from it only in some slight particulars. Judge Halston's bill passed the Senate unanimously.

AGRICULTURAL.—An immense crop of wheat, of the San Francisco variety, has been sown in the San Jose valley, the blades of which are now above ground. In some places, the wheat fields extend in an uninterrupted space for miles.

Gov. BIGLER held a grand soiree at Denica, on the evening of March 4th, in honor of the inauguration of President Pierce. Formal invitations were extended to members of the Legislature, "and others visiting the capital."

BREGLARY.—The residence of Mr. J. T. Parker, on Green street, San Francisco, was entered lately, by means of false keys, and plundered of various valuable articles, belonging to the parlor, such as ornate ornaments, books, pictures, &c.

THE CAPTAIN.—Was 134 days on his passage. She was Cape Horn 51 days in heavy gale, and has been off the Horns four days, with a pilot on board, in thick fogs and light winds.

WE ARE under obligations to Adams & Co. for our down river correspondence, and a copy of the Marquette Express.

WELLS, FARGO & Co. will accept our thanks for day papers.

WE LEARN from Denica that no important bill will be acted on in the Legislature before next week.

THE CITY.

Miska Hatcher.—Capt. J. H. Hatcher, the agent of the eminent violinist, dropped into our office yesterday, and informed us that he had made preparations for a concert to be given by Miska Hatcher in Sacramento on Thursday evening next, the 11th inst. Having been tendered the use of the Legislative Chamber, Miska Hatcher will respond to the compliment by giving a performance there on Tuesday night, en route for this city. That a crowd of thousands will greet him here, we have no doubt.

THE LARD CASE.—On Friday morning, the jury in this case sent into Court by their foreman, Mr. Joseph Shaw, their sealed verdict, which will be found in its appropriate place. Messrs. Winans, Morrison and Monson, plaintiffs, defended their case by the two first named gentlemen, and were battled step by step in the prosecution by Messrs. McKinnon and Crocker, who, although unsuccessful in gaining the cause for their clients, exhausted every honorable effort in the attempt. Fortunately for the jurors, their ten days' patience was rewarded in the sum of $500.

RECORDED'S COURT.—Friday was principally occupied before this body in the examination of two women, charged with harboring and concealing stolen property. Stolen goods were found in their possession, but as one of them claimed to be the wife of the man in whose house they were discovered, the jury was not entirely convinced of their guilt. New evidence was introduced, and the men with whom these goods were associated, were sworn in on board the prison barge, under the accusation of higher crimes, for which they will probably be put on trial in a few days.

THE CIRCUS.—A full house for the third time enlivened the circus performances last night. One of the Masters Lee made his debut as a youthful clown, and showed as lively a perception of the ludicrous as he does invariably of the tricks in his tumbling. Throughout, the entertainment was of the highest quality, and the audience, which numbered in the thousands, were well pleased with the performance. A fourth performance will come off to-night.

SABBATH SCHOOL.—We are requested by E. F. Woodward to say that the Sabbath School of the M. E. Church will meet to-morrow in their tent, erected on the corner of L and Seventh streets. The teacher will be happy to meet all who may attend, at 11 o'clock, of each Sabbath.

ANOTHER.—While crossing a lot of cattle over the Sacramento on Friday, Capt. Hogg, owner of the ferry boat, in attempting to pass a young cow running out of the boat, placed himself in front of them, and was knocked down and trampled over by the frightened beasts, and injured to a very serious degree. Medical aid was immediately dispatched to him from the city.

THE COURTS.

District Court.—Before Hon. J. M. Howell, Judge.

Friday, March 4th.

Winans, Morrison and Monson vs. Charles Christy et al.—Trial by jury. Continued through ten days. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiffs, with $1000 damages. Property assessed at $6000.

Loraga vs. Goodman.—Order for sale of property at public sale.

County of Sessions.—Before E. J. Wallis, Judge, and J. B. Gates, Associate.

Thursday, March 3rd.

Perez Foster (colored) charged larceny. Trial by jury. Found not guilty, and discharged.

Friday, March 4th, 1893.

John George Thomson for grand larceny. Trial by jury. The jury through their foreman, Josiah Johnson, returned a verdict for the State. Judgment of the court suspended till Monday.

Edi Mayo, for assault with intent to do great bodily injury. Case in progress. Court adjourned till one o'clock, and gave time for the introduction of material testimony.

THE TRADE WIND.—This magnificent floating power is not being discharged. Long Wharf. The amount of goods injured by the fire, for the purpose of being quite small. A finer specimen of naval architecture than the Trade Wind, has rarely, if ever, visited our shores.—San Francisco Whig.

COMMERCIAL.

March 4.—A day of transactions throughout the city has been remarkably small in the aggregate, and the attendance of country dealers limited. Flour commands 6c readily in large lots, and jobbing parcels 6c, and is the only article in which the demand assumed any thing like steady activity. The supply being considerably less than the consumption, the present low price induces producers to hold their goods in the city, and no article could be afforded at the large figures which have lately been obtained. Sales in barley have been of a brisk nature; prices continue unaltered; the feeling among holders has a slight tendency. Potatoes are still held out of market to any extent, more advanced prices being expected shortly; sales today made at 12c 1/2 per bushel, and the demand light. In groceries the same unaltered inquiry was observed; sales small at same rates quoted lately. No improvement in lumber since last noticed. Freight continues heavy from below and for up-river.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Transactions today have been confined in a great measure to the local market. Freighters have been quite active. Flour—We have further heavy receipts of this article by arrivals from the coast, and the market is well supplied. It is being sold, and shipments to a considerable extent have been made to the interior. Gallego and Haxall is selling at $11. Fresh Chile at about the same figure. Barley—The market is well supplied. An active jobbing trade is being done at 3c. 10c—4000 bushels Eastern sold yesterday at 3c. 100 bushels sold this morning at 3c. Potatoes—An active business has been doing by the trade at full rates. We hear of no important sales.—Journal.

MARYSVILLE, March 3.—Business since our last has been good. Yesterday it was particularly so, and the streets were crowded with trains and teams loading for the mines. There has been but little change in the prices of goods. Flour, $7.75; barley 4c; clear pork per lb $8.00.—Express.

Exciting News from the vicinity of Tehama—Indian Theft—Terrible Vengeance.

Mr. G. C. Luss, the express messenger of Adams & Co., furnished us with the following exciting news this morning at 1 o'clock, just as our paper was about to be put to press:

The Indians have committed so many depredations in the north of late, that the people are enraged against them, and are ready to knife them—shoot them—or incite them with the small-pox—all of which have been done.

Some time since the Indians in Colusa county destroyed about five thousand dollars' worth of stock, belonging to Messrs. Thomas & Toombs; since which time they have had two men employed at $100 per month to hunt down the Indians, and to kill and scalp as many as they could. On Friday, the 25th ult., one of these men, by the name of John Breckenridge, was alone and armed only with a bowie-knife, when he met with four Indians and attacked them. They told him to leave, and commenced shooting arrows at him, but he did not flinch, and continued to advance, and succeeded in killing one, and taking one prisoner, while the other two escaped. He immediately proceeded to kill the Indian which he had captured, and an Indian was hung by the citizens.

On Friday, the 25th Feb., stock was stolen from Mr. Carter, a settler on the river, to the value of three thousand dollars. Mr. Carter went forthwith to the camp of the well-known stage proprietors Messrs. Hall & Crandall, and there started with a party of twelve men in search of the Indians. They were successful in finding them in the vicinity of Pine and Dyer Crocks, the party became impatient and dispersed on Sunday evening. Returning home, one detachment of the party discovered a half breed by the name of Batteledon, and took him prisoner. The man, fearing for his own life, agreed to show the cave where the Indians were concealed, if they would spare his life. He then led them to the cave, and the people assembled again at Oak Grove, where they remained until they started in the night for the cave.

Arriving there at early daylight on Tuesday morning, they were met by a large number of Indians, and a fierce battle ensued, in which the Indians were killed and a number of their horses and mules were captured. The first one that made his appearance was shot by Capt. George Rose, and the others were killed or fled. The Indians were then taken to the camp, and there were thirteen killed; three chiefs of different ranches, and three women. Three women and five children were spared; and it is but doing justice to say that the women who were spared were spared in front of a score of breastwork, and killed either by accident or mistake. Captain Rose took one child, Mr. Lettison, and the other children were disposed of in the same charitable manner among the party.

On Tuesday, March 1st, three work oxen belonging to Messrs. Bull and Baker, were stolen from a corral in Shasta county, and on Thursday, the 3rd inst., the head were driven off at Red Bluffs. Value near four thousand dollars.
