NEWS OF THE MORNING.

We again this morning devote the greater por-tion of our space to the details of the news from the East, which will be found to be interesting To-morrow we will publish a full report of the speeches and proceedings of the Whig National Convention, which assembled in Baltimore and was in session during the 17th and 18th of September. The report will occupy two entire pages of the Union. Some of the most distinguished men in the Union participated, and their remarks generally are models of eloquence.

RETURNED .- D. K. Newell, Esq., a prominent old line Whig of El Dorado, returned by the last steamer. He has been absent six months, most of which time he spent in his native home, Kentucky. He brings cheering news of the prospects of Mr. Fillmore, on the Atlantic. Nearly every prominent man, either old line Whig or American, was on the stump in Kentucky for Fillmore. John J. Crittenden beaded the list, and he had appointments until the election. Gen. Pilcher, formerly a leading Democrat, is stumping the State for Fillmore. No doubt exists there among these men of carrying the State for him by a majority of thousands. Ned Marshall was also stumping the State for Fill-

The current was setting very strong for Mr. Fillmore throughout the Northern and Southern States. National men of all classes, were beginning to look upon him as the hope of the nation. The opinion was gaining ground that Buchanan could not be elected, and that Fillmore could be.

THE REMAINS OF A MURDERED MAN RECOV-

ERED .- On or about the 20th of June last, it will be remembered that a merchant named Rosenthall, coming from Grass Valley to Folsom, was murdered on the highway. He was known to have had between three and four thousand dollars on his person at the time. On Sunday last, Oct. 12th, Allen Pinkard, of Rose Springs, Placer county, was walking out with his wife, when he found a hat and sash lying in a secluded spot. Mrs. Pinkard, becoming alarmed, he was compelled to return home. On the Tuesday following, in company with Mr. McGinley, he again went to the spot, and after a search of some minutes, found the bones of a man scattered about by wild animals, about two or three hundred vards from the road, under a pine tree. The boots still covered the feet, and by the clothing Mr. Rosenthall was recognized. In the pockets were $4 25 in money, a silver watch, penknife, Bar. The remains were then removed to this city, by his brother-in-law-Mr. Hymen.

THE SAN FRANCISCO HERALD-A DISTURBANCE. -On Tuesday afternoon, October 14th, the office of the Herald was closed by virtue of an execution, issued at the suit of Samuel Brannan. The action being for debt, a portion of the material was retained under attachment in the building. The next morning, the paper was issued from a room in the Montgomery block. The possession of the property led to an altercation between Mr. Brannan and some of the bystanders, in the course of which the former picked up a mallet, and knocked one of the forms into pi. The police interfered, and were about to arrest him, when he retired to his office in Armory Hall.

THE GAMBLING LAW .- The grounds upon which Judge Barbour, of the District Court of Yuba county, discharged the persons accused of gambling, were that they had no property, and under the law could not be imprisoned. The act prescribes that the punishment for violation of the law is by fine, which is in the nature of a debt, and hence there can be no imprisonment. The and hence there can be no imprisonment. The law should be amended.

Ex-Governor McDougal Acquitten.—Ex-Governor John McDougal, charged with double voting at the San Mateo election, was, on Tuesday, Oct. 14th, acquitted by the jury, after a short consultation. In justice to the accused, it may be proper to say that his counsel waved a technical defect, and went to trial upon the merits of the case.

The Case of Briant.—Convicts at Large.—This case is still involved in doubt. Briant was imprisoned for one year for attempting to blow up a store in San Francisco, and was sentenced for two years, yet on the record but one year's imprisonment is entered. At the expiration of the year, he was set at large, although he is now the year, he was set at large, although he is now in the hands of the police. The True Californian of Wednesday, October 15th, mentions the fact that two other convicts, who should have been in the State penitentiary, were seen on the streets of San Francisco, on the previous day.

ARRESTED FOR SWINDLING .- Wm. McManus, formerly a resident of San Francisco, was arrested there a few days since upon the complaint of James A. Botters, who charges that he obtained goods to the amount of about $700 by falsely representing himself to be a prosperous merchant in Oroville or Placerville. The case has not been disposed of.

Consolidation .- The expenses of the city of San Francisco for the last quarter, ending September 30th, 1856, were $95,557 01, including $35,984 12 mortgage on City Hall. The average expenses under the old government, per quarter, Union Party.-In 1852 the Democratic party claimed to be the great National Union Compromise party, and Gen. Pierce was nominated and elected as a National Union Compromise candidate. All over the country the rallying cry of the Democracy was Pierce, the National Union, and the Compromise of 1850.

Pierce was elected as the Compromise candidate, and at the very first session after his inauguration the Compromise measures of 1850 were disturbed, the question of slavery re-opened. and a sectional issue foolishly presented, which is now shaking the Union from its center to its cir-

This fearful condition of things was brought about by the action of the Democratic party. It is the fruit of Democratic legislation, under a professed Union and Compromise candidate.

In 1856, the Democratic party is again proclaiming itself the National Union party. Its leaders declare that the Union is in danger, and that they and their party must be looked to for its salvation. They have raised a storm which threatens to engulf the Union, and have the cool impudence to call on the people to come to them, the mischief makers, for protection against the consequences of the acts of the very party which offers protection. The Democracy claimed that they alone could save the Union and preserve the Compromise acts of 1850; they promised fair, but they deceived the people most wofully. They promise now equally fair, but what confidence can the people place in their promises. Democratic party promises are made, it appears, for the election, and then to be kept or not, as the interests of the party may happen to dictate. Will the people again rely upon Democratic

THE INDIAN WAR AT THE NORTH .- The Yreka Union of the 9th October, contains some additional information from the command of General Cosby against the Modochs and Pitt River Indians. It publishes a letter from Mai. R. C. Wood, detailing the operations of his detachment, part of which we gave last week. He had been dispatched to chastise the murderers of Ross. He remarks, writing from Pitt River:

The Indians number about five hundred in this immediate neighborhood, and all of them are at immediate neighborhood, and all of them are at war with the whites, with the exception of one very small tribe. I learn from the friendly Indians that the warlike tribes intend stopping the travel, and burning all the houses in the valley. The citizens have become very much alarmed, and say if something is not done that they will be compelled to leave their property to be destroyed by the Indians. The Indians at this season of the year are very hard to get at, as they are scattered in small parties, stealing, and collecting their winter's food in the mountains. In the winter, owing to the depth of the snow and the cold weather, the Indians are compelled to take up quarters in the valley; then one company of men could kill the whole tribe.

A correspondent, writing from head quarters, Clear Lake, September 29th, says:

Captain Martin returned to camp on the 27th inst., after a twelve day's scout. He has scoured the country to the north of this post, found some Indian "sign," but saw no Indians.

Major Wood, with twenty-five men, returned to camp yesterday, after a twenty day's scout on Pitt river, where he killed five bucks, that he got, and stormed several rancherias in which he found no bucks, and let the squaws and children go. The Major left six men at Lockhart's, as a slight proction for that portion of the country.

They clearly evinced a disposition to be friendly, and disclaim any hostility to the whites either now or heretofore, and say they have not and will not steal from or kill the whites. They also offer to act as spies for us in hunting down the Modocs and all other hostile Indians, as the said Indians are continually stealing from themselves, and it is their intention to make war on them this winter.

The latest information is from the same source. under date of October 3d:

Captains Williams and Ballard, with their companies, and Lieut. Kennedy, of the spies, are out around Tule Lake on the look out, and General Cosby, with Captain Martin's company, are out on the lake on an Indian drive, with the boat attack. Both parties, acting in concert, it is to be hoped, will run down some Modocs. Information has just arrived that three of the boats have run down a lot of Indians in the tule; twenty-six are killed, and but four made their escape. Our operations will, for the balance of the campaign, be on Little Klamath Lake.

THE PEOPLE'S LEGISLATIVE NOMINATIONS WITHDRAWN .- The Nominating Committee of the People's party, or Committee of Twenty-One, had a meeting in San Francisco on Tuesday evening, Oct. 14th, to consider the subject of the nominations for Legislative offices. The following preamble and resolution were adopted:

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.-A correspondent writes us from American Bar, Middle Fork of the American, October 13th, that a few days previously, at Grey Eagle Bar, two brothers, named Starkweather, were working together under a high bank of river gravel, when it suddenly caved in, covering up and instantly killing one, while the other scarcely escaped with his life.

FIGHT OVER FURNITURE-The other day w noticed a fight over the grave of the French woman recently murdered in San Francisco. On Tuesday last, there was a dispute over her furniture, which was claimed by one party, and sold by another. The one who removed it was arrested for grand larceny, but subsequently discharged.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT .- A serious accident occurred about 31/2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, on the rail track on the levee, immediately south of the Harbor Master's office, used in loading and discharging vessels. The owner of the track had sent away an iron gin to get it fixed, and soon afterwards was applied to to deliver a lot of flower pots on the chooner Bianca, which was moored at the terminus of the track. As the load would be comparanus of the track. As the load would be comparatively light, he assented, and a single block was seized to the truck with rattling. There being about a dozen casks of butter at hand awaiting to be delivered on the schooner, it was decided to send them down the track first. The truck was loaded with the butter, and started down the track, accompanied by a man named Robert D. Clark and a boy, attaches of the vessel. It had, however, but fairly entered on the descent when the retiling but fairly entered on the descent, when the rattling parted. The truck descended with constantly in-creasing speed, until it reached a level section of parted. The truck descended with constantly increasing speed, until it reached a level section of the track, when the casks were jostled about so much that Clark, being forward, was forced off and fell through the track, landing near the water's edge. Several of the casks were also thrown off at the same time, and the truck passed on, crossing the deck of the schooner, and bringing up against the rail on the opposite side. The collision was so great that a considerable portion of the rail was broken, and seven casks of butter were thrown overboard. Three of the casks were afterwards recovered—the balance lost. The boy saved himself by catching the rigging of the schooner as he passed, and swinging himself off the truck. As it was, he received a severe blow on the jaw from one of the casks. Clark, being unable to help himself, was extricated from his uncomfortable position, and subsequently removed to the County Hospital, where it was found that, in addition to being bruised in several places, the sixth rib on the left side was broken, and an apparently severe contusion of the spine of the ileum existed. He had just arrived from the mines, and being in search of work, had secured a temporary job on the vessel.

He was compelled to suspend operations at that point, as the necessary tubing was not in readiness for insertion, and the presence of water rendered its use imperative. The tubing will be inserted today. It cannot reasonably be doubted that he will reach the depth of the old well—sixty-four feet—in twelve working days.

Atlantic Theatricals.

New York.—The past week was signalized by the opening of Burton's new theater, the manager being the chief attraction, and appearing in some of his best parts—Bob Acres, Tony Lumpkin, Billy Lackaday, &c.—to good houses. At the opera, the only event was the debut of Signor Ceresa in "Ernani." Ceresa came without preliminary puffing, and made a great hit. On the off night, Mr. Hackett has given us "The Merry Wives of Windsor," with a very good cast, including H. Placide, Wallack, Jr., and the manager. The attendance has not been so good as the performance deserved. At the Bowery, Mr. Brougham has produced "Marble Heart." There is nothing new about the Broadway Theater, and no settlement has yet taken place. The Ravels are still the main attraction at Niblo's; and we hear that Gabriel is shortly expected to arrive here with a new troupe of artists, and join with Francois. We are to have the German Opera at Niblo's on Tuesday, with a new company, in "Robert the Devil." Great expectations are entertained of this company. We hear also that Miss Emma Stanley, who has been delighting the Bostonians, will shortly re-appear at Niblo's. Miss Keene's new theater, in Broadway, is progressing rapidly. In the concert world, the excitement for the coming week will be the concert of Madame De Wilhorst, which is to take place at Niblo's Saloon on Thursday evening. Madame De Wilhorst belongs to the creme de la creme of fashionable society, and lately gave a very successful concert at Newport.—Herald, Sept. 20.

Baltimore.—Parodi's grand concert announced by Strakosch, with his highly effective company, took place last night at the New Assembly Rooms. The combined talent of this accomplished troupe produced a musical entertainment rarely equalled in our city, and the opportunity to enjoy it was within the compass of popular means. The programme included several choice pieces of vocalization by Parodi, whose name is praise; execution on the piano by Strakosch; on the violin by Paul Julien; and solos by Bernar Atlantic Theatricals.

We under-stand that these artists are chiefly of the number which comprised the celebrated Gabriel Ravel which comprised the celebrated Gabriel Ravel Troupe, amongst whom our readers will especially remember Blondin, the inimitable tight rope performer; Phillippe Martinetti, the popular clown, and others distinguished by signal ability. Laura Keene and the talented artists of her company will continue their attractive performances at the Holiday street Theater during the week. They have had a good run in Washington City, and an admirable harmony and concert, it is said, are prominently and peculiarly characteristic of this company. The style and finish of Miss Laura's acting have won high commendation, and in addition she is a beautiful woman. Messrs. Jordan and Wheatleigh are of the company.

At the National, the audience was very large, and the performances fur-nished a sure guarantee to "North End" that it now has a theater deserving of the most liberal support. The Boston was opened to a very full house, and the grand spectacle was received with house, and the grand spectacle was received with as much enthusiasm as when it was first produced last season. The old favorites, Mesdames Barrow and Wood, were plentifully bouquetted, and the other members of the company met with glorious receptions. The new American drama of "Linda," at the Howard, attracted a fine house, and it went off finely. The Museum was, of course, crowded, and Miss Logan, in the new tragedy of the "Italian Bride," created a new sensation, and added new luster to her already brilliant professional fame. Miss Stanley's entertainment at the Music Hall was not overlooked by amusement seekers, and the "Seven Ages of Woman" entertained, as usual, a goodly assemblage of ladies and gentlemen.

People vs. Geo. Lewis .- This case, which has occupied two days in its investigation, went to the jury at 10 minutes before 5 o'clock this P. M. At 20 minutes past 5 o'clock the jury came into court with a verdict of "not guilty," which was the unanimous vote on the first ballot. The evidence fully justified the verdict; the citizens are fully satisfied with the result.

THE TEHUANTEPEC ROUTE.-We obtain the following information from the San Francisco Globe, of Oct. 15th :

The wagon road is progressing rapidly, and will be completed by the first December. Negotiations are now pending with the Post Master General for a mail contract, which promises to be successful. The steamers will be placed on the line as soon as possible, and its completion will bring us seven days nearer New York, and ten days nearer New Orleans. The country is extremely healthy and abounds in magnificent scenery. The great importance of this route to California, inviting, by cheap and expeditious transportation, increased emigration, must be felt by every citizen of San Francisco.

INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

The Cordial will relieve with wonderful rapidity every disorder incident to the digestive apparatus; restore the appetite; renew the strength; harden the muscles; brace the nerves; give elasticity to the spirits, recruit the mental energies; banish despondency; impart to the attenuated frame a more robust appearance; allay irritation; calm the disturbed imagination; build up the shattered constitution; and may be taken without fear by the feeblest maiden, wife or mother; as it is composed solely of the juices of rare Oriental herbs, potent only to invigorate, exhilarate and restore.

If the system has become relaxed by improper indulgences, the Cordial will infuse a more vigorous vitality into every organ. The lassitude resulting from late hours, or close application to labor of any kind, is quickly removed by its action, and ladies engaged in sadentary occupations, and subject to inconvenience therefrom, will find it a safe and healthy stimutant. Where the circulation of the blood be sluggish, or any of the functions of the body are suspended or imperfectly performed, it will restore the natural action and communicate permanent energy to the secretive and distributive organs.

No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the diseased, debilitated and shattered nervous system, whether broken dewn by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once braced, revivified and built up. The mental and physical symptoms of nervous disease vanish together under its influence. Nor is the effect temporary; on the contrary the relief is permanent, for the cordial properties of the medicine reach the constitution itself, and restore it to its normal condition.
