ARRIVAL OF Dr. E. A. CZAPKAY, (LATE OF PARTS,) Surgeon, OCCULIST, AURIST AND ACCOUCHER.

THE UNDERSIGNED, grateful to the People of California, for their liberal and unwavering indersement of his services, has great pleasure in announcing the arrival, from Paris, of his brother, DR. EMILIUS A. CZAPKAY, who hereafter will be connected with him in business, and take charge of all cases of operative surgery, as well as diseases of the Eye and Ear. The practice of the undersigned has increased to such an extent that he has found it absolutely necessary to avail himself of the services of a first-class surgeon, occulist and aurist, and it is with great satisfaction that he presents such an one in the person of Dr. Emilius A. Czapkay.

It is eminently proper that persons confiding their health and lives to the care of a physician, should have reliable information as to his skill and capacity. The flattering reputation acquired by the undersigned for the successful treatment of his patients, and the extensive practice with which he is honored, would, under ordinary circumstances, be sufficient guarantee that he would not inconsider her has been allowed. THE UNDERSIGNED, grateful to the People of under ordinary circumstances, be sufficient guarantee that he would not jeopardise both by accepting the services of an unskillful associate, but a sense of what is due to the public, induces him to present the following honorable certificates on behalf of his brother.

was accompanied by affidavits and testimonials to the effect that Dr. Czapkay was a regular graduate M. D. of the University of Pesth, had served as a surgeon in the Hungarian army and was a regular practitioner of medicine. On the strength of these the degree was granted. The ad eundem degree, as its name implies, is conferred on graduates only, and gives us new privileges. Had there been the slightest suspicion of irregularity, the application would have been refused. By inserting this in your journal you will do act of justice to the College, and confer a favor on Yours, very respectfully,

Dean of the Faculty of the Philadelphia College of the Turkish language, he was appointed Chief Surgeon of the Turkish language application of the Pauch application of the Pau

In consequence of Dr. E. A. Czapkay's knowledge of the Turkish language, he was appointed Chief Surgeon to the 8d Regiment of the Turkish contingent, and served throughout the Crimean war. His services were so highly appreciated, that he received the following compliment from the Commander of the Regiment:

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, late Surgeon in the Hungarian rmy, and Lecturer on diseases of women and chil. ren, to which he has paid especial attention, would ren, to which he has paid especial attention, would ren, to which he has paid especial attention, would ren, to which he has paid especial attention, would ren, to which he has paid especial attention, would ren, to which he has paid especial attention, would ren, to which the head of the state o Dr. Czapkay, Surgeon, being removed to one of the Polish Cossack Regiments of the Turkish contingent, is struck off the strength of the Regiment from this date.

The commanding officer takes this opportunity of class of disorders known as nervous diseases. These irregularities with married ladies are too f equent causes of sterility, that bane of domestic happiness—but whether arising from this or other diseases, the Doctor's success in this branch of his profession justifies the assurance which he gives of certain relief. The Boctor would say to trose afflicted, that he fully appreciates the delicacy of the subject, and the disposition of females to suffer whilst suffering can be endured, rather than apply for that aid which will end heir troubles and restore their health. To such we would give the assurance of delicate consideration to heir sufferings, and speedy restoration to the capacitation of the kindness and care bestowed on himself whilst laboring under fever, and to express his best wishes laboring under fever, and to express his best wishes for his future welfare.
