To Whom it may Concern,

My Name is Joel Marvin. I am currently the Vice Chairman of Big Sandy Rancheria. I am the son of Charles and Donna Marvin and was raised here at Big Sandy Rancheria. My mother Donna is the daughter of Eldren and Francys Sherman. My Grandmother Francys, was a well-known Basket weaver who travelled the state and even visited the Smithsonian Museum in Washington DC to show her art. Although I am not a basket weaver, I watched and helped gather materials for my grandmother growing up. My Grandfather Eldren by trade was a Logger, but he was also a great hunter, fisherman and survivalist. My grandfather taught us how to survive in the wilderness. My grandparents were a big part of my life and molded me into the person I am today.

Before I was elected Vice Chairman, I spent the last 20 years in the Gaming industry. Working in the fast-paced casino industry. I spent years away from my culture and how I was raised. I am very thankful to the members of Big Sandy Rancheria for voting me to the council where now, I have the opportunity to focus on the people of our tribe, and culture of our people.

Thank You

Joel Marvin
