

Deserea Langley

CSU Native American Studies Member

Preferences: Chico

Qualified:

Native American Studies, PhD., University of California, Davis, 2021

Native American Studies, M.A., University of California, Davis, 2016

Deserea Langley is a member of Susanville Rancheria. She served as a professor in Native American Studies at CSU Chico since 2022. Additionally, she served as a consultant for Native American Cultural Resources Department at Chico State since 2023. Dr. Langley has also served as a consultant for the development of the Associated Students NAGPRA resolution. Furthermore, Dr. Langley was instrumental in supporting land restoration for the Mechoopda Indian Community. Dr. Langley's dissertation focused on the land allotment system in California. She also explored how the Susanville Indian Rancheria is using tribal sovereignty to assert its claim to the land for economic development and cultural revitalization. Langley is a Paiute and Shoshone Native American enrolled in the Susanville Indian Rancheria.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
NATIVE AMERICAN GRAVES PROTECTION AND REPATRIATION ACT
IMPLEMENTATION AND OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE

NOMINATION FORM

The California State University (CSU) is committed to fully implementing the spirit as well as the legal requirements of both the Federal Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA) and the California Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (CalNAGPRA), which were enacted to acknowledge the fundamental human right of Native Americans, Alaska Natives, and Native Hawaiians to their ancestral Human Remains and Cultural Items.

The CSU seeks nominees for the Systemwide and Campus NAGPRA Committees. The purpose of the committees is to provide oversight and guidance for the development and implementation of Systemwide and Campus CalNAGPRA and federal NAGPRA compliance, which includes NAGPRA policy development. The CSU is referencing the requirements as outlined in Assembly Bill 389 Section 8028.7 and Section 8028.71 to guide the committee selection and policy development processes.

If you are interested in serving or nominating a candidate please review the criteria below, complete the following application materials, and submit completed materials with 1) Attach a short biography or resume demonstrating that the nominee meets the criteria below; 2) Attach a letter of support from Tribe, Tribal resolution or a letter of interest with this form; and 3) Attach a list of at least three references, with name, telephone number, and email address for each.

Committee Term: 3-year renewable staggering term

Tribal Nominees: Support letters or Tribal resolutions for Tribal nominees should be from Tribal governments, Tribal community organizations or Institutional leadership organizations, include the strengths of the candidate, as well as any information that might be relevant.

CSU Nominees: Support letters or resume for CSU nominees should include professional experience demonstrating the ability to work in collaboration with Native American Tribes successfully on issues related to repatriation or museum collection management.

Please note, the CSU will keep completed application on file for committee positions that may become available in the future.

Deadline: Nomination materials must be submitted to nagpra@calstate.edu by December 5, 2023

SUSANVILLE INDIAN RANCHERIA

July 22, 2024

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter serves as the Susanville Indian Rancheria Tribal Business Council's recommendation for and support for Mr. Cole Morales to serve on the California State University Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA) Implementation and Oversight Committee at Chico State. Mr. Morales has demonstrated through his career and knowledge of Tribal Culture and a vast understanding of its importance for Tribes. Mr. Morales has a Master's Degree in Wildland Management from California State University, Chico; and would offer keen insight into Cultural Resources. As a Tribal Member of the Susanville Indian Rancheria, Mr. Morales represents the local native community of Susanville, and has support from the Tribe to serve as a committee member for Chico State's NAGPRA Committee and would be an advocate in protecting Tribal cultural resources. His extensive knowledge would be excellent for working in consultation with state and federal entities and agencies. This letter of support and recommendation was passed by a consensus of the Susanville Indian Rancheria Tribal Business Council.

If you have any questions, you may contact the Susanville Indian Rancheria Tribal Chairman at: ahart@sir-nsn.gov, or (530) 257-6264.

Respectfully,
