CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
NATIVE AMERICAN GRAVES PROTECTION AND REPATRIATION ACT
IMPLEMENTATION AND OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE

NOMINATION FORM

The California State University (CSU) is committed to fully implementing the spirit as well as the legal requirements of both the Federal Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA) and the California Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (CalNAGPRA), which were enacted to acknowledge the fundamental human right of Native Americans, Alaska Natives, and Native Hawaiians to their ancestral Human Remains and Cultural Items.

The CSU seeks nominees for the Systemwide and Campus NAGPRA Committees. The purpose of the committees is to provide oversight and guidance for the development and implementation of Systemwide and Campus CalNAGPRA and federal NAGPRA compliance, which includes NAGPRA policy development. The CSU is referencing the requirements as outlined in Assembly Bill 389 Section 8028.7 and Section 8028.71 to guide the committee selection and policy development processes.

If you are interested in serving or nominating a candidate please review the criteria below, complete the following application materials, and submit completed materials with 1) Attach a short biography or resume demonstrating that the nominee meets the criteria below; 2) Attach a letter of support from Tribe, Tribal resolution or a letter of interest with this form; and 3) Attach a list of at least three references, with name, telephone number, and email address for each.

Committee Term: 3-year renewable staggering term

Tribal Nominees: Support letters or Tribal resolutions for Tribal nominees should be from Tribal governments, Tribal community organizations or Institutional leadership organizations, include the strengths of the candidate, as well as any information that might be relevant.

CSU Nominees: Support letters or resume for CSU nominees should include professional experience demonstrating the ability to work in collaboration with Native American Tribes successfully on issues related to repatriation or museum collection management.

Please note, the CSU will keep completed application on file for committee positions that may become available in the future.

Deadline: Nomination materials must be submitted to nagpra@calstate.edu by December 5, 2023

Kimberly Morales Johnson is an active and enrolled member of the (Gabrieleno Tongva) San Gabriel Band of Mission Indians. Kimberly has been active in Native American politics and culture, maintaining her family traditions all of her life. Her father served as tribal chairman, and was one of the first to serve as a Native American Monitor for the State of California. She and her family have been featured in documentaries and several books, regarding the Native people of the Los Angeles Basin.

In 2010, Kimberly earned her Master's in Public Health and taught Diabetes Education with Riverside San Bernardino County Indian Health. After working as Special Education Teacher in Pomona for about 10 years, Kimberly returned to school and is a PhD Candidate in Native American Studies at UC Davis. Kimberly is the co-founder and Executive Director of the Tongva Taraxat Paxaavxa Conservancy, the newly formed Tongva LandConservancy, based in her ancestral homelands.

Subject: Nomination of Kimberly M. Johnson
(California State University NAGPRA Committee)

California Native American Heritage Commission
1416 9th Street, Room 902
Sacramento, CA 95814

Dear Members of the California Native American Heritage Commission,

I am writing to nominate Kimberly M. Johnson for consideration to serve on the Cal State NAGPRA Committee. Ms. Johnson's exceptional background in tribal relations, lifelong commitment to her community, and her current pursuit of a PhD in Native American Studies make her an outstanding candidate for this important role.

Ms. Johnson has consistently demonstrated her commitment to advocating for Native American rights and cultural preservation. Her community involvement dates back to her childhood, showcasing her lifelong dedication to service and engagement. Her passion for uplifting and empowering indigenous communities is evident in her numerous contributions and initiatives aimed at fostering cultural awareness and preservation.

Currently pursuing a PhD in Native American Studies, Ms. Johnson's academic pursuits complement her practical experience in the field. Her scholarly endeavors equip her with a comprehensive understanding of the historical, cultural, and legal aspects pertinent to Native American heritage preservation, making her an invaluable asset to the Cal State NAGPRA Committee.

Thank you for considering Ms. Johnson's nomination. Should you require any further information or clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Anthony Morales
Tribal Chairman

Kimberly Morales Johnson
