CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
NATIVE AMERICAN GRAVES PROTECTION AND REPATRIATION ACT
IMPLEMENTATION AND OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE

NOMINATION FORM

The California State University (CSU) is committed to fully implementing the spirit as well as the legal requirements of both the Federal Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA) and the California Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (CalNAGPRA), which were enacted to acknowledge the fundamental human right of Native Americans, Alaska Natives, and Native Hawaiians to their ancestral Human Remains and Cultural Items.

The CSU seeks nominees for the Systemwide and Campus NAGPRA Committees. The purpose of the committees is to provide oversight and guidance for the development and implementation of Systemwide and Campus CalNAGPRA and federal NAGPRA compliance, which includes NAGPRA policy development. The CSU is referencing the requirements as outlined in Assembly Bill 389 Section 8028.7 and Section 8028.71 to guide the committee selection and policy development processes.

If you are interested in serving or nominating a candidate please review the criteria below, complete the following application materials, and submit completed materials with 1) Attach a short biography or resume demonstrating that the nominee meets the criteria below; 2) Attach a letter of support from Tribe, Tribal resolution or a letter of interest with this form; and 3) Attach a list of at least three references, with name, telephone number, and email address for each.

Committee Term: 3-year renewable staggering term

Tribal Nominees: Support letters or Tribal resolutions for Tribal nominees should be from Tribal governments, Tribal community organizations or Institutional leadership organizations, include the strengths of the candidate, as well as any information that might be relevant.

CSU Nominees: Support letters or resume for CSU nominees should include professional experience demonstrating the ability to work in collaboration with Native American Tribes successfully on issues related to repatriation or museum collection management.

Please note, the CSU will keep completed application on file for committee positions that may become available in the future.

Deadline: Nomination materials must be submitted to nagpra@calstate.edu by November 27, 2023

QUALIFICATIONS

Tribal Nominees

Tribal Nominees must be a member of a federally or non-federally recognized California Indian Tribe as defined by Section 8012 of the Health and Safety Code. Preferred experience in any of the following:

- Tribal Historic Preservation Officer work;
- Repatriation of human remains and cultural items pursuant to CalNAGPRA and federal NAGPRA;
- Cultural resources protection under Tribal, state, and federal law; or

Mark Villaseñor Bio

An active and determined member of his community both culturally and politically, Mark Villaseñor has been an engaged leader and citizen of the Fernandeano Tataviam Band of Mission Indians, a sovereign tribe of Los Angeles County, for his adult life. He is the descendant of lineages/villages of Ta'apu, Tapo Canyon, Siutcanga, the village at Encino, and Chaguayanga, a village in Santa Clarita Valley. And as the current Tribal Vice President for his tribe, Mark collaborates with Federal, State and Local municipalities, as well as other sovereign nations, in efforts to better his tribe. Engaging in civic activities and volunteerism, Villaseñor has been active in City sponsored initiatives.

In addition to advocating for his tribal community, Villaseñor supports other City residents. He is often called upon by his alma mater, CSU Northridge to support student-initiated programs and provide guest lectures or songs. Additionally, Villaseñor supports programs by other community-based organizations providing services to the broader local community.

To better accomplish financial, political, or cultural objectives for his tribal community, he graduated with a B.S. in Business Administration with a focus in Global Supply Chain Management from California State University, Northridge.

Re: Tribal Vice President Mark Villaseñor CSU Campus Nomination

Dear Native American Heritage Commission Members,

I fully endorse the nomination of Vice President Mark Villaseñor to represent the Fernandeño Tataviam Band of Mission Indians on The California State University Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act and Oversight Northridge Campus Committee. As both a citizen and elected leader of the Fernandeño Tataviam Band of Mission Indians, Mark Villaseñor has been instrumental in repatriation efforts for several years, including voluntarily attending California State University Northridge meetings to advocate for Native American participation and consultation. His expertise and firsthand experience in repatriation efforts, as well as his understanding of the present circumstances at The California State University Northridge Campus regarding ancestors and repatriation, make him an unparalleled candidate for these efforts.

Sincerely,

Rudy Ortega, Jr., L.H.D
Tribal President
