

Information to Commission Regarding Dispute

Thank you for expressing interest in the Native American Heritage Commission's CalNAGPRA mediation and dispute resolution process. To begin the mediation process, please provide the following information and submit it to the Commission via USPS regular mail at the following address:

Legal Department
Native American Heritage Commission
1550 Harbor Blvd Suite 100,
West Sacramento, CA 95691

I. Submitting party information:

- Tribe:
 - Tribe requesting mediation:
 - Your name and title:
 - Your contact information:

- Institution:
 - Institution requesting mediation:
 - Type of Institution (Academic, Museum, Municipal, or Other):
 - Your name and title:
 - Your contact information:

II. Other parties involved in dispute:

- Name of the other party/parties:
- Contact information for the other party/parties:

III. Brief description of the nature of the dispute

- Please include the following information:
 - How did your party become aware of the dispute?

 - Are there items in dispute? If so, what are the items?

 - Is there a Federal Register posting associated with this collection?

 - What attempts at resolving the issue have been taken?

- What was the result of those attempts?
- Has your party suggested mediation to the opposing party?
- Relief requested:
- Please note: your party will be asked to submit supporting documentation and evidence as a necessary part of the mediation process. Documentation and evidence are not required as part of this initial submission, but you are encouraged to begin gathering documents and evidence immediately.